It's YOUR health...

SPRINGFIELD CLINIC

now you have the access you deserve.

How do I sign up for myHealth@SC?

1. Sign up during your office visit.
2. Your receptionist will verify your identity and notify the myHealth@SC team that you've signed up.

3. Within 5 business days, you will receive an invitation via email to activate your myHealth@SC account.

4. The email invitation will include a link to the myHealth@SC login page. Login using an existing Windows Live ID, Google, Facebook or Yahoo account. If you do not already have one of these accounts, a link is provided to create one.

5. You will be required to enter an INVITATION CODE (active for 60 days), which is the last four digits of your social security number.
